

OZZY'S "ROMANCE" A THEME SONG

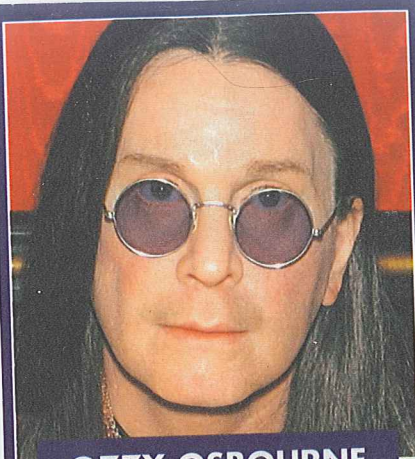

A class in Belen High School, Canada, have successfully won their bid to make Ozzy Osbourne's "Goodbye to Romance" as its theme song. Mind you, they had a battle on their hands, when one of the school board, Bob White, called for the song to be banned - not because of the lyrics but because of Da Ozz's past lifestyle of alcohol and drugs. Common sense prevailed, and the song was voted in 3:1. The great man himself heard about the commotion and contacted the students through his website www.ozzy.com. He wrote, "It saddens me that my song, which is about saying goodbye to friends and moving on with one's life, could be so grossly misinterpreted. I dedicate my song to all of you and wish you much love and happiness in your lives."

■ Ozzy Osbourne has been put back on the road by his sick wife, Sharon, who has cancer. Ozzy took time off to care for her, but as Sharon underwent the first of her chemotherapy treatment Ozzy almost passed out.

"The thing with Kelly is she went and got a fking anchor [tattoo]. I didn't mind the little heart, but a fking anchor! It's so unfeminine. But that's Kelly."

Ozzy Osbourne, you could use an anchorwoman in your life

OZZY OSBOURNE

ADMITS THAT HE IS 'LUCKY TO BE ALIVE'

Ozzy Osbourne has spoken of the 'nightmare' following his quad bike crash in December. Ozzy was in a coma for eight days and suffered a broken neck, broken ribs and a punctured lung. 'I am lucky to be alive,' he said, adding defiantly: 'The old Ozzy Osbourne will be back.'

THE OSBOURNES

Jack broke his arm several months ago. Kelly was limping on crutches, due to a strained ligament. Ozzy's collarbone recently got replaced by a metal rod, after his December ATV accident. Talk about an all-star cast!

◀ "I didn't know where I was or how long I'd been there. It felt like months or years. You could have told me I was stark-bollock naked talking to the Queen and I wouldn't know any better!" No that's not headbanger Ozzy Osbourne (left) talking about his regular life. It's his description to an American paper of the time he spent recovering from a December quad-bike accident in which he fractured his collarbone, eight ribs and a neck vertebra.

A! EXT

★ Ozzy Osbourne as an anti-drugs campaigner? You betcha! The rock'n'roll wild man has publicly called for a total ban on all narcotics after seeing son Jack admitted to a mental facility for drug abuse. "I used to think they should legalise pot," Ozzy says, "but you know what? They should ban the lot." Good on you, Ozzy!

BIRTHDAY WISHES

Ozzy Osbourne is 55 on December 3.

From bat-biting rocker to reality TV legend, The Osbournes patriarch has had quite an image change. Now the Prince of Darkness is making a bid for the Christmas number one with his daughter, Kelly. The pair are releasing Changes, which featured on the 1972 Black Sabbath album, but the lyrics have been adapted to talk about a father/daughter relationship. Ain't it sweet?
