

OZZY OSBOURNE

REVEALS HOPES OF EXTENDING HIS FAMILY AFTER HIS QUAD-BIKING BRUSH WITH DEATH

Nearly losing his life in a quad bike accident has forced Ozzy Osbourne to rethink his life – the 55-year-old rocker says he wants to have another child. Ozzy's wife Sharon said that he told her of his wish after leaving hospital. Sharon, 51, laughed: 'He was on about having another baby – that's all he's talking about at the moment. He was saying: "Let's have one more." Sharon, though, has reservations. 'We'd end up being geriatric parents,' she giggled. 'I'd rather have another dog but we'll see.' They already have three children, Jack, Kelly and Aimee, and Ozzy has a son Louis from his first marriage.

Ozzy Osbourne demonstrates why some men just shouldn't do it.

Ozzy Oscar?

Ozzy Osbourne has agreed to a film being made about his life, and after the popularity of The Osbournes I think it's bound to be a success. People are really interested in Ozzy now, so he's right to strike while the iron is hot.

Sharon Osbourne wants Johnny Depp to play Ozzy – I'm not surprised, he's gorgeous! He's quite quirky as well, so he might want to do it. If he does, I'll definitely be going to see it.

✓ Ozzy Osbourne's home is fast becoming a tourist mecca as fans flock to the scene of Network Ten's hit show about the singer and his family.

A friend reveals: 'Ozzy left his old house because he was fed up with fans coming round gawping and taking pictures. That's the reason he moved.'

The celebrity homes spotting industry in LA is worth millions every year, with minibuses trailing the streets with fans hoping to catch a glimpse of the stars.

Until now Ozzy's new home had been kept a secret. That all changed after the success of The Osbournes.

As a tour guide says: 'The fans are clearly determined to track him down.'
