Q: I heard that Jack Osbourne is the guy who picks all the artists for Ozzfest. Does he do anything else in his spare time?

A: Yes, Jack is the talent scout for the Ozzfest lineup. According to mom Sharon, 16-year-old Jack has quite an ear for music. Don't let his punk appearance fool you though...he obviously isn't all bad, because he just filmed a cameo for an episode of squeaky-clean Dawson's Creek. Look for it to air sometime this season.

STAY INSIDE THE LINES

Messy lips are no girl's friend.

We'd like to thank Erika Christensen's makeup artist for demonstrating every rule for pulling off cherry lipstick. The color is bright but elegant, and using it with soft rosy blush and only a tad of berry eyeshadow prevents that painted-up effect. So even though her lips are bold, they don't steal the show.

Think back to your preschool days, when you hadn't quite mastered coloring books. Remember the red crayon lips you smudged over the characters' faces? Kelly Osbourne's are squarely in that tradition. Her mouth is proof that your lipline is there for a reason.
