

Another low-key birthday for Sharon

When? Tuesday 9 October
Where? The Talk studios, LA

You know Sharon Osbourne: doesn't like attention, prefers to shun the limelight. For her 60th birthday, she kept that tradition going with this quiet, close-friends-only affair hosted by her TV show The Talk. Flanked by five guardsmen in bearskins, Sharon took to the studios on a golden throne surmounted by a giant crown, before cutting a cake in the shape of her dog Minnie. And Mariah Carey sang Happy Birthday. No biggie.

■ "Feel free to kiss my feet, loyal subjects"